

Genta Hayes Training & Onboarding Specialist YMCA of Metropolitan Dallas

Genta Hayes is native of Kansas City, Missouri, the eldest of four siblings and Godmother of a seven-year old son. In her six-plus years with the YMCA she spent four years with the Y of Greater Twin-Cities and two with Metropolitan Dallas.

Genta currently serves as the Training and Onboarding Specialist with the Dallas Y where she designs the onboarding process and guides leaders in engaging and developing new part-time team members. She also leads a Bible study for women employees in the Y.

Genta has a B.A in History, Master's in Youth Development Leadership, and is currently studying for ministry at Dallas Theological Seminary (DTS). Outside of Y she serves in her church, is fellow for DTS, mentors women in leadership, and coaches leaders and their teams through vision casting and leadership development.

Genta enjoys reading, cooking, swimming, travels, and time with family and friends. Her motto is, "If I can enVISION it, then it shall come to pass."

