

Georgia Green Founder and CEO BE-U Revolution

Georgia is the founder and CEO of BE-U Revolution. She is an author of leadership curriculum, speaker, trusted organizational development advisor, and executive consultant. She is passionate about creating collaborative, strengths-based cultures and mobilizing teams from inspiration to action. Georgia solo hiked from Mexico to Canada on a quest to help people overcome fears and has inspired thousands of people to live their best life. While walking over 2,000 miles and living in the wilderness for over five months, she wrote the curriculum used to found BE-U, with the vision to inspire, empower and ignite others. BE-U provides a number of proprietary tools to support organizational development and employee engagement including MotivIQ, the world's first Motivational Intelligence Platform, a tool used to help uncover individual motivators for high achievement and support an organization's ability to engage and retain top talent.
