

NORTH TEXAS REGIONAL EMLE 2019

Juna Jones-Moore

Senior Director, Diversity & Talent Acquisition Conifer Health Solutions

Juna Jones-Moore is responsible for collaborating with key leaders to support a company-wide talent acquisition and diversity strategy for Conifer Health Solutions. As Senior Director, Diversity & Talent Acquisition, her role is to ensure bench strength supports continued organizational and leadership growth while ensuring diverse talent is well aligned with organizational needs.

Juna received her B.S. in Human Resources from Texas A&M at Commerce (formally East Texas State University) and received master's from the University of North Texas in Denton. Recently received designation as Certified Diversity Professional from National Diversity Council. Over 25+ years of staffing and diversity related experience, designing recruiting strategies contributing to organizational strategic objectives.

Juna worked 12 years at GameStop, Inc. as Director, Diversity & Talent Acquisition leading the overall talent acquisition strategy and launched the company-wide diversity strategy; previously worked 11 years at JCPenney in several recruiting roles – College Relations Manager, Diversity Recruiting Manager & Recruiting Manager for JCP Direct Marketing Services Division. Prior to working with big box and specialty retailers, her background was primarily in the mortgage banking industry as Assistant Vice President, Senior Recruiting Specialist at Sunbelt National Mortgage in Dallas, Texas and Sr. Human Resources Representative for Countrywide Home Loans, Inc. in Plano, Texas.

Currently, serves as Board Member of National African American Women's Leadership Institute (NAAWLI); member of the Society of Human Resources Management, and Dallas Human Resources Chapter. Juna is a member of Delta Sigma Theta, North Dallas Suburban Chapter and Links, Inc., Plano North Metroplex Chapter. Also, Juna formerly served as President, Advisory Board, Greater Fort Worth, Texas Diversity Council; VP of Executive Advisory Board Relations - the National Association of African American Human Resources (NAAAHR), Chair of National African American Women's Leadership Institute (NAAWLI) and Vice Chair, Department of Management Advisory Board, UNT School of Business.

Juna has been married for 37 years to Greg, her college sweetheart, and has two adult sons, and two grandchildren. She is a member of One Community Church, Plano, TX.

