

WAXAHACHIE FAMILY YMCA

What We've Built Together—And What Comes Next!

Last month, we gathered with donors, community members, and city officials to break ground on the Cindy Hess Memorial Park—the first milestone in our $3.7 million capital campaign! It was a beautiful moment to celebrate our shared vision and set the tone for what's ahead.

Waxahachie donors, community members, city officials, and YMCA staff came together to celebrate this important milestone and set the tone for the exciting work ahead as we move into the next phase of our capital project.

A Look Ahead: Renovating our Building

The next critical step in our campaign is renovating the Waxahachie Family YMCA building. While the park celebration marked an exciting start, our work is far from over. To continue to bring the vision to life, we'll need your continued support to renovate and expand our facility.

Phase Two will include:

- Expanding the building by 11,000 square feet to serve more members and families
- A welcoming new fellowship atrium designed for connection and community
- An expanded parking lot with 100+ new spaces
- Modern, family-friendly dressing rooms with direct pool access
- A larger, enhanced Child Watch room
- Three new group exercise studios
- A versatile community room for events, programs, and community gathering
